Trusted by Hundreds of Departments Across the Country

"The format of FireRescue1 Academy is well put together and that helps our firefighters stay attentive. One of the best things about this training solution is that we have the ability to start and stop training at any time as we are in and out of the station responding to calls. We also really like that this program utilizes more video and audio formats, which our previous solution did not provide. FireRescue1 is a great addition to Mesquite Fire and we are happy to have a program that supports our industry's continuing education."

"Previously, we had been searching for an online training platform that not only ensured cost savings but offered a strong content library and custom course builder that would allow for our department to add specific training content. Since implementing FireRescue1 Academy, we are taking full advantage of this modern-day training solution for applied learning, which has led us to maintaining our ISO 2 rating."
